Policing public opinion in the French Revolution: the culture of calumny and ... Par Charles Walton, George Charles Walton

125. Ibid., carton 11, doss. 118, doc. 18, letter by the patriotic citizens of Perpignan, denouncing efforts by the marquis de Banyuls de Montferré, brother of a national deputy, to stir up opposition to the National Assembly's policies on religion, May 5, 1790.